

Ex Libris
JOHN AND MARTHA DANIELS

Ex Libris

Graham M. Adee

104

4705
60+

53. ALKEN, HENRY. [Gigs and their Drivers.] 6 very spirited COLORED PLATES by Henry Alken, on cream paper. Oblong 4to, half red levant morocco, original decorated wrappers with paper label bound in, by ZAEHNSDORF. [London, 1830?]

A FINE SERIES OF COLORED PLATES, comprising:

Simplicity in a Cab

A Hack Going to a Mill

A Dun Going over the Ground in True Style

The Way to Do the Thing Genteelly

The Royal Patent

Style and Docility

The plates in this copy are without dates or watermark. The bound in label reads: "A Series of Very Spirited Etchings of Gigs and their Drivers. By Alken. Price Ten Shillings." With the Clarence S. Bement bookplate.

FROM WIDENER - 1944

SIMPLICITY IN A CAB.

A HACK GOING TO A MILL.

A DUN GOING OVER THE GROUND IN TRUE STYLE.

THE WAY TO DO THE THING GENTLY.

THE ROYAL PATENT.

STYLE AND DOILITY.

